

Goals for Unit 5 in German 102

How often can you do these tasks correctly?

Goal 1: I can talk about regions of Germany and regional differences	Almost always	Some-times	I'm just starting this	What? Help!
I know all of the vocabulary from Chapter 5 including the genders of nouns and their plurals.
including the principal parts of verbs.
I can associate geographical information to regions of Germany including landscapes, cities, and states.
I can articulate associations of festivals, foods, building styles, and climate with regions of Germany.
I can associate historical information to specific places in Germany.
I can tell about a region or place in Germany describing where it is, why it is interesting to me, and a few interesting facts about it.
I can state facts about some German historical figures including names, periods, and fields of endeavor.
I can name place the names of the German states on a German map.
Goal 2: I can talk about where I live and study.
I can tell about where I live/come from.
I can tell about my college.
I can tell about a local item of my cuisine.
I can tell about another place in the USA than my own environs.
I can talk about my car and about the Trabi.
Goal 3: I can gather and relay information
I have read all the articles in the Lernbuch and written answers to the questions associated with each article.
I answered questions about the articles in class.
I participated in the oral activities provided during class time.
Goal 4: Mechanics: supporting communication
I can speak about things that happened in the past using hatte and war when appropriate (the Imperfekt)
using the ge + forms (Perfekt)
I can write the forms of haben and sein to use with Perfekt
I can write the principal parts of schwach and the practiced stark verbs
I can pick out the participles in the texts and state the infinitives.
I can write and speak sentences in Perfekt.
I can state and demonstrate and use correctly the rules for verb placement in German sentences
I can list the coordinating conjunctions and join sentences together correctly using them

How often can you do these tasks correctly?

Goal 5: Comparing Cultures
I can explain how some Germans view the different regions of their country. North – South views, regional foods, East – West views,
I can explain what multi-culti means to Germans in terms of language awareness.
I can compare the language opportunities at the University of Hamburg and Simpson College.
I can relate differences between the historical sweep of history of Germany and America.
I can talk about the effect of the Bauhaus on modern design.
I am beginning to understand the power the concept of the city holds in a German's psyche.
I have looked at the sheet , Cultural Targets, and have found the pertinent information in the Lernbuch or in the CD Interactive materials.
My personal goal for Chapter 3
Subgoal 1:
Subgoal 2:
Subgoal 3:
Subgoal 4:				