

Goals for Unit 7 in German 102

How often can you do these tasks correctly?

Goal 1: I can talk about German elementary school experience and compare it to my own experiences. (auf Deutsch, natürlich)	Almost always	Some-times	I'm just starting this	What? Help!
I can explain what elementary schools exist.
I can describe the typical school schedule for children.
I can point out differences between the German system and my early school experiences.
I can tell about German children's first days and how that is different and yet the same as my first days.
Goal 2: I can talk about German secondary school experience and compare it to my own experiences.
I can explain what secondary schools are available for students.
What are they? Who attends? What are the outcomes?
I can describe a typical school schedule for secondary students.
I can point out differences between the German system and my experiences in the secondary school.
I can talk about the differences in the concept of extra-curricular activities between Germany and the USA.
Goal 3: I can talk about German university experience and compare it to my own experiences.
I can explain the requirements for attending a German university.
I can explain what university types are available and what the outcome of university study is.
I can explain the basic difference between German and USA class attendance policies.
I can talk about differences in finances between German students and students at Simpson.
Goal 4: I can talk about some occupations in German society.
I can use German occupation names to tell what work members of my family have.
I can explain the expectations for first time workers.
I can explain what Germans might find important in their jobs.
I can explain why being multi-lingual is important to a German worker and even more so to a Swiss worker.
Goal 5: I can gather and relay information
I had read, understood and answered questions about the texts in the Lernbuch.
I had done the exercises on the CD and handed in all the Thema's.
I helped the class bridge the gap between the CD learning and the Lernbuch activities.
I wrote out the homework assignments, using the patterns suggested and trying new combinations of constructions.
Goal 6: Mechanics: supporting communication
I can give the schwach und stark principal parts.
I can correctly use Präsens und Perfektum.
I can correctly use Modalen in Präsens and Imperfekt
I can correctly use some prepositions.
I can use transposed word order when necessary.

